

BANK HAD MILLIONS IN DEPOSIT

Closed by Bank Superintendent and President
Taken to Sanitarium

ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

Said to Have Been Made by the Suspended Official—Other Concerns Involved.

New York, Dec. 28.—The Northern Bank of New York, with deposits in its nine branches of $6,912,582 at the time of its last published statement, was closed yesterday by O. H. Cheney, state superintendent of banks, "for the benefit of the depositors" and because of "certain conditions" and "also certain irregular transactions."

An inventory of the bank's assets and liabilities is now under way. W. H. Hotchkiss, state superintendent of insurance, and District Attorney Whitman are co-operating with him. They hope to present the facts to a grand jury this afternoon.

Joseph G. Robin, chairman of the executive committee of the bank and shareholder and director in many other corporations, is in a private sanitarium, to which he was committed last Saturday at the request of his sister, James H. Gifford, one of the bank's directors, today said that the examining physicians had diagnosed the state as acute paranoia and that Robin had tried to kill himself in his apartments last Saturday night but was restrained by a nurse.

Although Robin was committed on Saturday, he was not conveyed to the sanitarium until yesterday. For Mr. Gifford and another director visited him in his apartments Monday evening in an effort to obtain collateral.

Mr. Gifford also said: "I knew nothing about the irregularities, nor do I think any of the other directors did, until they were revealed by the examiners of the banking department and our own investigators. We held out hopes that conditions would right themselves until Monday night, when, at a meeting which lasted for hours, we called upon the state banking department to step in."

"Depositors will receive 100 cents on the dollar and stockholders a substantial dividend, if we can realize on our collateral. We have cash on hand of $2,000,000 and quick assets of $3,000,000."

Supt. Hotchkiss was drawn into the case through the fact that Robin held a controlling interest in the Aetna Indemnity Company of Hartford, Conn., capitalized at $250,000, which does business in this state. The relations of the Aetna with the Title and Guarantee Company of Rochester, form the subject of a long statement by Superintendent Hotchkiss. The directors of the Aetna, in a typewritten reply, admit that "the report given out by the insurance department" was correct in the essential particulars. In part, the statement of Mr. Hotchkiss follows:

"Joseph G. Robin was, in March last, the controlling stockholder of the Aetna Indemnity Company and apparently of the Northern Bank of New York. One of the chief assets of the Aetna Company (a Connecticut corporation, in no way related to the Aetna Fire Insurance Company), was, according to the statement of Dec. 31, 1909, 1500 shares, or the entire issue, of the corporate stock of the Title Guarantee business."

"This corporation had, however, been dormant for some time. A lease of its title plant to a Rochester abstract company produced an income which, in addition to its other assets, gave the stockholding a value of $160,500, out of the total assets of the Aetna Company of approximately $1,000,000."

Coincident with an increase in the capital stock of the Aetna Indemnity last spring, Robin seems to have opened negotiations for the purchase from it of the Rochester company. About that time, both companies elected new officers. Former Superintendent Kelsey (Otto H. Kelsey of the state insurance department) becoming president of both. It appears that shortly prior to this time, Robin, as one of the witnesses said, had stated that he would purchase from the Aetna the stock of the Title and Guarantee Company. On the strength of this statement—for there was no contract until October, 1910—the assets of the Rochester Company were turned over to him on March 31 and without the knowledge of President Kelsey or the other officers of the two interested insurance companies, disposed of and manipulated as Robin directed."

The summary of this alleged manipulation follows and the statement then continues:

The following telegram has been received from Mr. C. H. Spencer, president of the Board of Trade, who, with Hon. Edward Kibler, was appointed a committee by the board to visit Baltimore and present Newark's advantages as a location for the new repair shops to the proper officials.

STRIKING MACHINISTS OF THE B. & O. SAID TO HAVE REACHED AN AGREEMENT

A dispatch from Baltimore says that the striking machinists of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad after having new year.

The dispatch also says that the terms of the settlement were not officially announced, but it is understood that certain concessions were made by both sides.

While nothing officially has been received here regarding the situation, either at the office of the Master Mechanic Superintendent's office, or by the strikers generally, all are awaiting news to the effect that the strike has been settled, as it is the opinion that the settlement is only a question of a few hours.

It was thought by some of the best strikers that a vote would have to be taken on the proposition by the strikers here and at other places, where shops are located before any settlement of the strike could be ratified. This, however, may not be necessary, and as Mr. T. J. Callahan, the delegate representing the Newark strikers, is expected home from Baltimore tomorrow, he will give a full report of the conference between the railway officials and the representatives of the striking machinists. The machinists will get away all to begin in their old shops with the commencement of the new year.

CUDAHYS UNDER THE SAME ROOF

Will Re-marry According to the Latest Rumors

TRAGEDY IS FORGOTTEN

For the Sake of the Children Reunion May Occur Soon.

Pasadena, Cal., Dec. 28.—Mrs. Cudahy, who divorced her husband here yesterday and took up residence at the Cudahy home. There her former husband who has been ill recently, has been living since his arrival last day.

Every circumstance goes to show that Mrs. Cudahy has reconciled to their four children, Cudahy, who is accompanied by a chaplain, will re-marry her husband, their friends assert. Their young children, Catherine, Marie Cecilia, Anna, and Michael, are in the Pasadena convent, near Alhambra. There will be a happy family reunion before New Year's day, it is said.

So will end, probably, a tragedy, in which jealousy, ill founded, had served to true love. Young Mr. Cudahy lived in a fine residence, city-sixth and Walnut streets. Michael Cudahy, one of the sons, Mrs. "Jack" was the daughter and temperamental daughter, Judge Cowan of Duluth, a guided jurist. Cudahy and Mrs. S. Lillis, president of the Exchange Bank of Pasadena, were asked to the party and met also in the city. Lillis was a bachelor. He took Mrs. Cudahy to his home, last, driving her to the city. Lillis went in the house. He and his chauffeur drove to the house. Lillis was bound with a rope to the chauffeur brought. A voice on the telephone called him. Arriving quickly they were on the parlor floor; he been slashed with a sharp knife the face, arms, body and legs. The wounds seemed to be dangerous. Lillis was taken to hospital; he recovered in a time.

Jack Cudahy never returned to home. His father, Michael, but giving money in far as giving money in seemed to sympathize with. Last August young Cudahy divorced him in Kansas. "You have always been a wife," her counsel, Mr. asked her.

"I have," she replied.

"Did your husband ever give language to you?"

"Often. Sometimes very much."

The match corroded over Mrs. Cudahy said. She got in a tree, but it took away her and gave them to their grief who out of court allowed Mrs. Cudahy a year as long as she or until she married.

The divorce gave permission to each to marry. Mrs. Cudahy said she was not ready to marry. She was a love match. Michael Cudahy had money. He should not be talking about money, but, really, he is a man's son and has no money.

"I do not believe we are married to each other," Mrs. Cudahy said. "I am married to my mother."

Michael Cudahy said he was not ready to marry. He was a love match. Michael Cudahy had money. He should not be talking about money, but, really, he is a man's son and has no money.

AMUSEMENTS

LAST NIGHT'S SHOW.

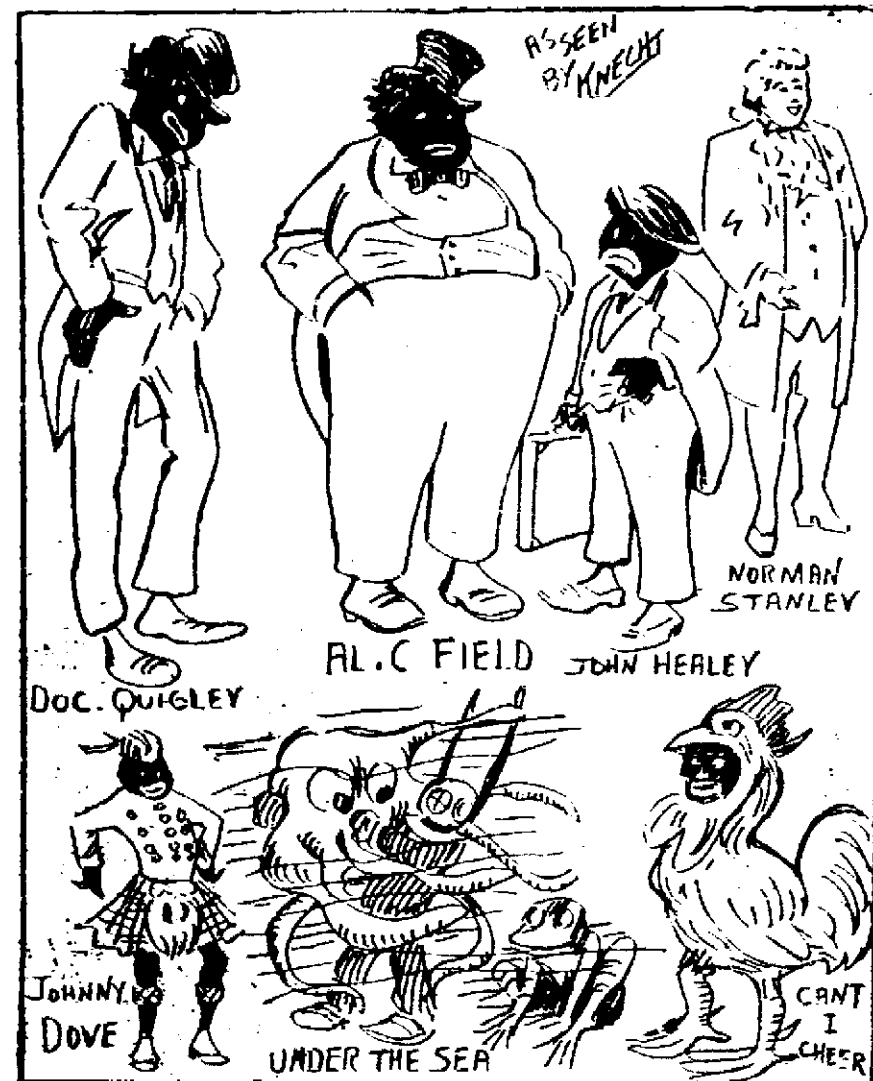

The attraction at the Auditorium Theatre on Tuesday evening was the melodrama, "Daniel Boone," on the "Trail." The company carries some real Indians from the Pine Ridge agency in Nebraska, among which was White Eagle, who is boasted as the grandest son of the Sioux warrior, Sitting Bull, at the Auditorium Theatre, Thursday.

The play had all the thrills of the original "melos" and the gallery gods enjoyed every minute of it. For its kind the show was very good and the company is probably the most capable seen in a production of this character for some time.

"THE CITY."

Those connoisseurs of the plays of the late Clyde Fitch who have labored under the impression that the great playwright could not write a "manly" play, will change their view after seeing his posthumous drama, "The City," to be presented here by the Messrs. Soubert, at the Auditorium Theatre, Thursday, Dec. 29. Previous plays by Mr. Fitch have all been in a comedy vein and the characters therein have been almost exclusively members of the "Smart Set," but in "The City" will be found real flesh and blood creatures, playing the battle of life in a familiar vein.

WHAT THE CARTOONIST SAW AT FIELD MINSTREL

AUDITORIUM THEATRE TONIGHT.

AL. G. FIELD'S GREATER MINSTRELS.

This afternoon and tonight at the Auditorium Theatre.

On this, the occasion of the celebration of his twenty-fifth and Silver Jubilee Anniversary Year, Mr. Al. G. Field has been successful in placing on tour for this quarter-century-marking year the biggest and best minstrel organization in the history of American minstrelsy. Of a higher order from every standpoint of production does the Al. G. Field's Greater Minstrels excel this season. Not alone are the scenic appointments more elaborate and beautiful, the organization bigger than ever before, but the series of stupendous, beautiful and gorgeous productions in this season's scenic revolution in minstrelsy easily places this show in a class by itself and conclusively proves the Al. G. Field Greater Minstrels an attraction of the highest order of excellence. What was, perhaps, the most successful offering made by Mr. Field in his entire career, "The Girl in the Taxi," comes to the Auditorium Theatre for one performance very soon.

"LENA RIVERS."

"Lena Rivers," by Mary J. Holmes, the play that comes to the Auditorium Theatre on next Saturday, Dec. 31st, matinee and night has become noted for the beautiful gowns worn by the ladies of the company, five in number. Several Parisian and London importations are worn and each is said to be a delight to all the ladies who see the play. The marvellous carry a large insurance on the wardrobe trunks of the company.

"THE GIRL IN THE TAXI."

"The Girl in the Taxi," has changed the slogan, "bread is the staff of life" to "laughter is the staff of life" and has proved its version the truthful one by achieving the greatest success of any play written for laughing purposes produced in many seasons. It is no exaggeration to say that the spectator may prepare to laugh for two and one-half hours if a visit to "The Girl in the Taxi" is contemplated.

"The Girl in the Taxi" comes to the Auditorium Theatre for one performance very soon.

THE ORPHEUM.

Manager Bassett has a very entertaining bill at his theatre, the Orpheum for the holiday week and is nightly playing to good sized audiences.

The big act is Fanny L. Brott and company in the decidedly clever little comedy, "Married For Money." Mr.

A Dramatic Scene in Clyde Fitch's Last and Best Play, "The City," at the Auditorium Theatre Dec. 29th.

Brott and company appeared at the Orpheum in a previous engagement and his worth as the eccentric old father, who is outwitted by his daughter and the man she wishes to marry, is well remembered. The company, supporting Mr. Brott is good.

The Clayton Family Quartet would push any feature act for prominence, and the work of every member is most meritorious. The solo number on the euphonium by one of the quartet is remarkable and the ensemble numbers are excellent.

The Great Lombards have a nice hand balancing and gymnast act which works smoothly and rapidly and the offering is complete by Ritchie Brown in a monologue and singing act in which he gives a burlesque lecture on love.

The motion pictures are exceptionally clever comedy films.

Newark and Granville people are to have a rare opportunity of hearing Ellen Terry, "The Queen of English Actresses," who is to appear at the Memorial Hall, Columbus, on the evening of January 5. Miss Terry comes direct from New York, and will appear in only three Ohio cities, Columbus, Cleveland and Cincinnati. The Columbus folk intend to give New York people one better by presenting the greatest of living actresses with a golden plate, on which is engraved an appropriate poem, and Governor Harmon has been asked to make the presentation speech. The people of New York present Miss Terry with a golden book on the first appearance of her farewell trip as a token of their esteem. Lovers of Shakespeare will have a rare feast on this occasion as her entertainment consists of illustrative acting of Shakespeare's heroines. Mr. H. J. Alexander, the local agent for the Ohio Electric Railway, has secured an option on some sixty choice seats, which can be secured at the Interurban ticket office. It is very likely that a special car will be operated to accommodate the Newark and Granville people who care to attend.

"THE CITY" PLEASURES WHEELING AUDIENCE

The following is the review of "The City," the great play which is starting the country, when appeared at the best playhouse, The Court, in Wheeling, W. Va., which appeared in the Wheeling Intelligence:

Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 28.—That much talked of play, "The City," the latest produced work of Clyde Fitch, was offered at the Court, Monday, in two holiday audiences that were more than pleased. There is no denying the fact that "The City" is a strong play, but in its broadness and strength, in the treatment of certain characters and scenes comes a very touching tale gives to the audience a feeling of the unpleasantness of the life in the city and the home life and the family portrayed. In the past of Harbuck, the same story is impressive. This latter was made in a very touching tale gives to the audience a feeling of the unpleasantness of the life in the city and the home life and the family portrayed.

The author has often taken from the life, also at a drawing all sorts of facts. It is as though the story literally swept the audience from the mountains of stage drama and placed it in the heart of the city, where the life is so real and only a conclusion, when the scene of a life, respectively, makes the discovery that the story has been made to an intimate scene of the life. Mr. Fitch's work is done at the first conclusion that there was only one way out of difficulty and for the first time in his career he has resorted to murder. The thought of the field seems to be the end.

The play so takes its name from the fact that, upon the death of the head of the family, the children, led by the headstrong son, move to New York, where as the boys say, "The good in you is brought out." It is the "City" versus that of the "Village." Some say that Mr. Fitch never intended to preach a sermon, certainly he has done so, but in a negative sort of way, for the audience is left to draw its own conclusion as to which place, the city or village, draws out the best and noblest.

The play is admirably cast. Sam H. Hardy was seen in the role of the ambitious young lawyer, "George Hand, Jr.," whose hopes are ruined at the very moment when success seems within his grasp. The role of his drug crazed half brother, "George Frederick Harbuck," was enacted by that sterling character actor, Edwin Caldwell. Those two men carry the climax at the end of act II. to a tremendous height. That grand old couple of the stage, Matt and Rose Sawyer, now rounding out a half century of active work, appeared as Mr. and Mrs. Hand respectively.

"SALOME" ROUSES IRE OF OFFICIALS

Mary Garden.

Mary Garden's idea of "Salome" has had tough sledding in some of the cities in which she has attempted to give it. Chicago banned it, but Milwaukee was lenient.

ONE CONCERT GIVEN BY THE FIELDS BAND

Al G. Field and his great big minstrel company, located at Newark, early this morning by special train and will give two performances at the Auditorium theatre this afternoon and night.

After parading at noon the big Walters' Banner Band, carried as a special feature this season, gave the most concert ever heard here. The parade was splendid, largely approaching the magnitude of a circus parade.

Another free band concert will be given this evening at 7:15 at which Mr. Field invites the public.

Mr. Al G. Field is probably better acquainted with more people personally than any other person in Newark, and was kept busy upon his arrival this morning shaking hands with his numerous friends. Mr. Field is celebrating his silver jubilee year and is carrying the largest and finest minstrel organization ever staged. Al Field is the only minstrel manager who has managed his own company for 25 years, and is the only manager holding this unbroken record.

The advance sale is unusually heavy and indicates the usual turn-around business that Mr. Field is always sure of when he visits Newark.

WILL PLACE BIBLES IN THE LOCAL HOTELS

Every hotel in Newark is to have a Bible in it, and it is the hope of the Bible Society of Newark that the traveling public may have free access to the Bibles of Newark. Permission was granted Tuesday, by M. P. Aschbrook, of Newark, a member of the "Admission of Bibles to Hotels" association, an association of Christian traveling men of the United States.

The Bibles are being placed in every hotel in the country. During the year the organization has placed 10,000 Bibles in hotels, 5,000 being placed in Newark alone. One Bible is placed in each bedroom.

The movement is meeting with the support and encouragement of all religious organizations and the hotel men's associations. "A mother comforted by the word as expressed on her son's tomb: 'My son, aged 21. Died in his youth, but saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ—A Mother.' How about your mother?"

ITEM FOR WOMEN

Marlboro, Mass., June 1, 1910. I can frankly say that Parisian Sage has given me perfect satisfaction and will highly recommend it as a hair grower and beautifier, and a sure cure for dandruff. I also have recommended it to several people and it has given wonderful results.

—Mrs. G. Barreux, 25 Main St., Cynthiana, Ky., June 3, 1910. I have only used two bottles of Parisian Sage, and I find my hair has increased wonderfully in thickness and luxuriance and beauty. The dandruff all disappeared. I was wonderfully surprised, as I have tried many hair restorers, though I have found none that ever helped my hair except Parisian Sage, so I can say it is worth all of the hair restorers I have ever found, and I will tell many friends about it. Gratefully, your friend, Miss M. Clough, Box 212.

Evans' Drug Store guarantees Parisian Sage to kill dandruff germs, eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp or itching back. It is the most wonderful hair dressing in the world and is not sticky or greasy. Evans' drug store and druggists everywhere sell it for 50 cents a large bottle. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Conley of Cadiz, O., who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Conley in the North End, for some days, left for their home Wednesday morning.

Miss Ruth Southern, daughter of Mr. John Southern of the Lippert restaurant, left Wednesday for Gallatin, O., where she will visit her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Dougal.

CONDITION OF
DR. E. W. HUNT
WAS EXAGGERATED

An article appearing in Wednesday morning's Ohio State Journal from an unimpeachable local correspondent regarding the condition of Dr. E. W. Hunt, stated that his right ear drum had burst and that he would be "totally deaf." The article said that his skull was fractured and that it would be impossible for him to leave his bed for six weeks.

The article is grossly exaggerated and misleading and will cause the thousands of friends of Dr. Hunt over the country much unnecessary worry. A telephone message from Mrs. Hunt at Granville to the Advocate Wednesday morning stated that the doctor's ear drum had not burst, that his skull was not fractured and that instead of being laid up in bed with the chances of staying there for the next weeks, he was in fact at that moment sitting up in the living room of his home, conversing with members of his family. All of this will be pleasing news to the many friends of Dr. Hunt.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM SERIOUS INJURY

Al G. Field, the minstrel man, had narrow escape from death of serious injury during the band concert on the west side of the square at 11:15 this morning, when his carriage, recklessly driven by the driver, collided with the casket wagon of Criss Bros. & Jones.

The wagon has a very high seat, on which were Mr. E. E. Jones, who was driving, and Mr. Charles Cooper, rider.

As the wagon turned into the alley at the Franklin Bank, Mr. Field's driver came tearing down Third St., and the side of the carriage struck the end of the wagon, upsetting it and throwing both Jones and Cooper heavily to the pavement.

Fortunately neither man was hurt and the damage to the vehicles was slight.

The schools have closed for one week's vacation.

Pearl Grubb has discontinued his pool room and restaurant and will move to Rushville.

Patrolman Sutton was on the way to his home on St. Clair street, and passed an alley on Elmwood avenue, just in time to see a pedestrian inadvertently coasting down the hill toward Hudson avenue. The man failed to arise right after his fall and the policeman thought to assist him, and clinging to the fence, Mr. Sutton worked his way partly to the side of the "coaster" when he struck a particularly hot spot and slid for a distance of fully a hundred feet, then fell. His back and left side were severely bruised and his trip home was painful. The man went to assist disappeared before Mr. Sutton got on his own feet again.

WILL CELEBRATE
OPENING WITH A FINE BANQUET

A new speaker from the ranks of the new men of Columbus will be the guest and speaker of the opening banquet at the Y. M. C. A. Friday evening.

Mr. Allen Albert is the editor of the Columbus News and already has made himself felt in his new home. He is not only a good speaker and a good newspaper man, but an enthusiastic Y. M. C. A. man. His former home was in Philadelphia. The invitations for the event are out and acceptances are coming in nicely. Prospects are for a very pleasant and profitable event.

It is hardly necessary to explain that the policy of the association is to make these social events of a social and inspirational nature entirely. The solicitation of funds at such a lanquet or the raising of money there is not to be thought of. The present occasion is to mark a new era in the life and work of the association. For the first time young men and business men can enter the office and social room on the first floor. The men attending the banquet will be shown through the building and can see what the improvements are and how they are to add to the efficiency of the association's work.

OFFICIALS

Of Adams County Are Overworked in the Vote Bribery Cases Now on Trial.

West Union, O., Dec. 28.—Judge Blair announced this morning that indicted voters who do not voluntarily appear for sentence will receive heavy fines in addition to higher court costs. The judge says the county officials are overworked.

Three precincts remain to be gone over before the jury adjourns until next week. The whole ground will then be carefully gone over again.

The hint dropped by Judge Blair this morning to the effect that confession is good for the soul and the pocketbook has already borne fruit. Voters are flocking in to give themselves up and so waited for the judge this morning until he would hear confessions. Thirty-one more waited to testify before the grand jury.

The resumption of the investigation of the grand jury next Tuesday may follow entirely new lines.

Estimates place the total indictments at 1082 up to the time the jury will adjourn tomorrow. About $2,000 have been paid in fines and a like amount is still due from men given time to make up the amount.
